OR93-573

Dear Ms. Forkner:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Texas Open Records Act, chapter 552 of the Government Code (former article 6252-17a, V.T.C.S.)¹ Your request was assigned ID# 21912.

The Texas State Board of Examiners of Psychologists received an open records request for certain records that you contend may be withheld from the public pursuant to the Open Records Act, sections 552.101, 552.103(a) and 552.107 of the Government Code (former sections 3(a)(1), 3(a)(3) and 3(a)(7), article 6252-17a, V.T.C.S.).

To secure the protection of section 552.103(a), a governmental body must demonstrate that requested information "relates" to a pending or reasonably anticipated judicial or quasi-judicial proceeding. Open Records Decision No. 551 (1990). In this instance you have made the requisite showing that the requested information relates to pending litigation for purposes of section 552.103(a); the requested records may therefore be withheld.

In reaching this conclusion, however, we assume that the opposing party to the litigation has not previously had access to the records at issue; absent special circumstances, once information has been obtained by all parties to the litigation, e.g., through discovery or otherwise, no section 552.103(a) (former section 3(a)(3)) interest exists with respect to that information. Open Records Decision Nos. 349, 320 (1982). If the opposing parties in the litigation have seen or had access to any of the information in these records, there would be no justification for now withholding that information from the requestor pursuant to section 552.103(a). We also note that the applicability of section 552.103(a) ends once the litigation has been concluded. Attorney General Opinion MW-575 (1982); Open Records Decision No. 350 (1982).²

Because case law and prior published open records decisions resolve your request, we are resolving this matter with this informal letter ruling rather than with a published open records decision. If you have questions about this ruling, please contact our office.

Yours very truly,

Loretta R. DeHay
Assistant Attorney General

²Because we conclude that you may withhold the requested information pursuant to section 552.103, we do not address your arguments under sections 552.101 and 552.107 (former sections 3(a)(1) and 3(a)(7), article 6252-17a, V.T.C.S.) in this ruling.
